5241 Pro's Drive, West Chester, Ohio 45069 (513) 874-0343

A native Cincinnati, Judith Reed began her interest in color and shapes at a very early age. She had a pencil in her hand ever since she can recall. Working in different media allowed her to realize her passion for watercolor. She studied with and was inspired by Don Dennis,aws. She has been influenced by Bill Doerman, Judy Anderson, Sandra Maudlin, Homer Hacker, Tony Couch aws, Gail McDaniel, Mel Stabin aws, and Frank Webb aws. She is currently studying with Vola Lee.

Artist Statement:

“Drawing and painting reveals my personality, but mostly it is a recalling of my everyday memories and special times expressed in color for others to share. Creating an image remains thrilling and intriguing. Watercolor continues to be challenging, changing, and exciting.”
